27th Annual Strawberry Fest a Huge Success

Left: Richard Lashau, winner of the grand prize in the raffle, is shown with the historical quilt created by Caroline Adams. Above: Many people brought some of their older items and had the appraisers look at them to find out what they were and if they had any value. Whatzit appraisers were kept quite busy and some people went home thrilled over the fact their item was worth a considerable amount of money.

The 27th Annual Strawberry Fest and Whatzit Appraisal Fair were held on Sunday, June 26. The weather was good and the strawberry shortcake was great according to those in attendance. A large turnout of history buffs and strawberry shortcake lovers was hand. The Strawberry Fest and Whatzit Appraisal Fair is our major fund raiser for the year. Besides strawberry shortcake, hot dogs and barbeques, soda, and bottled water were served. We apologize for running out of strawberry shortcake and barbeques, but that occurred because of the large crowd on hand.

This is the third year that we have had demonstrations of "Lost Art" which included timber framing, rosemaling, rug weaving with a loom, hand sewn quilting and making yarn with a spinning wheel.

Those in attendance had an opportunity to visit our historic village which includes the original Iola & Northern Railway depot built in 1894 and houses our railroad and transportation memorabilia, the Helvetia Town Hall which currently houses two special displays of 100 years of the Iola Winter Sports Club and ski jumping in Iola and the 150th anniversary of the Iola Grist Mill.

Another building is a replica of the first Iola fire house that was built in 1900 and houses a trio of original fire fighting equipment owned by the Iola Fire Department including the first mechanized equipment, a horse drawn 1912 Waterous Pumper, 1924 Ford Model 'T' hose truck and 1939 REO Speed Wagon fire truck built by R. I. Anderson at his machine shop here in Iola. Mr. Anderson continued building fire trucks for several more years and ended up building 24 fire trucks over the years. The Iola Historical Society possesses photographs of four additional trucks that he built.

President's Corner

We want to thank all of our members and non-members that worked so hard to make the Strawberry Fest and Whatzit Appraisal Fair such a success. A special thanks to those that did such a splendid job on their demonstrations of Lost Arts and to those that came down and performed appraisals. Without your support this event would not be the success it was.

I personally want to thank all of the businesses that donated prizes for the Strawberry Fest Raffle and for those that helped as a sponsor of the fest; your help was greatly appreciated. A big thank you goes out to all those who attended and supported our efforts; we hope you enjoyed yourself and look forward to seeing you again next year on Sunday, June 31, 2011.

Be sure to mark your calendar for Saturday, October 2 and come to our new fall fund raiser, Lost Arts Fair and Taste of Norway.

We invite you to visit us on any of the remaining Saturdays through September, and enjoy our many displays, such as 100 Years of the Iola Winter Sports Club and Ski Jumping in Iola, 100 Years of Boys Scouting, and the 150th Anniversary of the Iola Grist Mill (Wipf's Mill).

Also on display are two Norwegian trunks. One trunk, made in 1765, was brought to Iola by Arve Gullikson in 1864. The other was brought to the Iola area by John Amundson Buslett and was built in 1751. We also have other Norwegian artifacts of interest on display. Again we are open on Saturdays now through September from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm for your convenience and pleasure.

Admission is free, but donations are encouraged. Lyle Mork

In The Window

Jeremy Woodliff uses a draw knife to form a peg to be used in pinning the mortise and tendon together on a post and beam constructed building.

The Iola Historical Society unveiled a bench donated by the family of Ann Moerke and dedicated in loving memory of her. Ann owned and ran the Crystal Café from 1965 until 1997. Unveiling the bench is Ann's daughter Judy Bolier, who currently owns the restaurant and granddaughter Jennifer Schustek. Others in the photograph are Lyle Mork, President of the Iola Historical Society, Judy's brother Clarence Moerke and his wife Karen, Judy's husband Doug and her other brother Storm North.

Matt Honken gave wagon rides with his large team of Percheron draft horses which brought enjoyment to many visitors attending the Strawberry Fest and Whatzit Appraisal Fair.

include a log cabin and a replica of an old country school house. The latest building acquired and located across the street from the village currently houses a display honoring Lee Nelson who served in WWII as a B17 pilot. Lee flew 31 bombing missions over Germany and France from May through July of 1944, during which time he earned four Air Medals and the Distinguished Flying Cross. It also includes a model of a B17 that Lee carved in 1945 while he was still in the military and stationed in Texas as a flight instructor. Other exhibits currently housed in this building include 100 Years of Boy Scouting in the United States, Norwegian trunks and many other items

New Fund Raiser

On Saturday, October 2, the Iola Historical Society will host a new fund raiser that will be held annually. The event will be the Lost Art Fair and Taste of Norway. It will be held on the same weekend as the Hidden Studios' art tours. Also taking place at the historical society on the same day will be the I-S Craft and Gift Show and the Northland Church will host special cooking lessons on how to make rosettes, sandbukkels, krumkake, fattigman, lefse and other pastries.

The Norwegians are coming!

On Saturday August 7, the Iola Historical Society will host the national group of the "Tre-Lag Stevne," an organ-
