

Iola Historical Society

Board Meeting Minutes, April 29, 2019

Present – Cliff, Tom, Lee, Charlie T., Bonny and Sharon.

Cliff opened the meeting.

March meeting minutes approved.

Tom gave the Treasurer's report. IHS received $500 from Iola Lions for the marker program. Lee inquired about the endowment fund and how and when the funds can be used. It is available as needed. Charlie T. motioned to accept the report, Lee second. Approved.

Cliff talked about the "Historic Hometown Tour" program that is being organized by the Thern Farm in New London for the participation of area historical organizations. The gal managing the program is arranging for the promotion and advertising. Participation cost to the IHS will be approximately $50 to $75.

Doug purchased a large Eagle for the raffle at the May event.

Lee discussed the contact for an old organ from a Methodist church. Do we want it for IHS? Someone will go to look at it.

Also talked about a trade token Cliff received from Gene Hooker that was issued by Udkler & Strai.

Lee talked about a recycle program for late August to recycle electronics. To host this event will cost approximately $500. More information needed.

IHS will contact the woman from New London Historical Society library about the sheet to register donations or gifts to IHS. Nola Thompson motioned to do this, Charlie second. Charlie will order a book to help with this project.

Tom talked about Carter Snyder's help with the IHS web site. Tom, John and Greg will meet with him.

Membership Meeting Minutes, April 29, 2019

Doug opened with the Pledge of Allegiance. Twenty-five people were present.

Secretary's report – Sue Halverson motioned to accept – Donna Hooker second. Approved.

Treasurer report. Explanation of the endowment fund. Currently $185,000. Donna Hooker motioned to accept. George Cuhaj second.

Historic Hometown Tour organized by Thern Farm in New London. Eleven organizations are involved and will do some advertising.

Cliff and Greg attending the unveiling of the marker for the ski hill at the golf course. Cost of each marker is approximately $3,500.

Discussion of the Memorial Day event.

Program by Sharon (62 years as a hairdresser in Iola).

Minutes recorded by Acting Secretary – Sharon Peterson